GOOD NEWS APPLIED TO LIFE

February 1 & 2, 2020—Pastor Glenn Seefeldt

Jesus, in Mark 5:21-43, shows us what we can do about the illness of racism. Following the example of Jesus we Stop, Listen, Allow it to impact us, Act, act as a Gracist, a phrase coined by Dr. David Anderson. The world knows racism to be the negative thought, speech, or action of others, solely based on others' color, class, or culture. Gracism, simply put, is the extension of grace and positive favor towards others, regardless of and sometimes because of color, class, or culture. The "G" added to racism represents God, and Dr. David Anderson would say that you can solve any problem when you put God in front of it! Dr. David Anderson is Senior Pastor of Bridgeway Community Church in Columbia Maryland. For more information go to www.bridgeway.cc/new-here/gracism

THE SEVEN SAYINGS OF A GRACIST:

1. I will lift you up

Lifting up the humble by assisting and elevating them towards success

2. I will cover you

Protecting the most vulnerable among us from embarrassment and harm

3. I will share with you

Opening up networks and resources to others who are systemically downtrodden, and refusing special treatment that may hurt them

4. I will honor you

Recognizing those who are the most humble heroes among us regardless of color, class, and culture

5. I will stand with you

Committing to stand with the weak-the majority committing to stand up for, and with, the minority

6. I will consider you

Having equal concern for our neighbors regardless of color, class, or culture by considering their perspectives and needs

7. I will celebrate with you

Rejoicing when the humble and less fortunate among us are helped
