

Isaiah's Call

One day, just like any other day, something amazing happened to Isaiah—he saw God!

God sat on a throne. Angels with six wings sat next to God. The angels used two wings to cover their faces, two wings to cover their feet, and two wings to fly.

They sang, “Holy, holy, holy is God!” The walls shook and so did Isaiah’s knees. Isaiah was amazed. God was more awesome than Isaiah ever knew.

One angel carried a hot coal and touched it to Isaiah’s mouth. Guess what! The coal didn’t burn! Instead, it took away the fear inside him. “Who should I send to be a prophet for me?” God asked Isaiah.

Now there was something new on his lips. Not a hot coal, but brave new words. Isaiah heard his own voice say, “Send me!”
